EXHIBITIONS

MEETING POINTS: LIFE ON YOUR STREET

14 October to 22 October, Free

Have you met the neighbours? For one week only, explore the creative connections that took place when researchers and artist Scott Farlow invited residents on two streets in Easton and Southville to document the important things about where they live.

BRISTOL DOORS OPEN DAYS

13 September to 22 October, Free

Capturing the experience of the festival, this pop-up exhibition presents the Photography Competition winners alongside other top festival shots.

GENERATION PLACE

28 October to 22 December, Free

See how the Centre's innovative participation programmes are inspiring the next generation of creative placemakers.

TALKS & EVENTS

STRUCTURE AND SERENDIPITY

Wed 20 September, 18:00, Free

Art in the public realm can be bound by, or spring from, civic structures for engagement. Join speakers Theresa Bergne, Jo Plimmer and Kim Wide to discuss the challenges and rewards of commissioning art with urban communities.

ASK AN ARCHITECT

Saturday Surgeries: 14 October and 11 November, 12:00 – 16:30, £15 donation

Offering impartial one-to-one design advice with a local architect from a Chartered Practice – don't miss the last two sessions of the year.

In partnership with RIBA South West.

IS OUR LANDSCAPE KILLING US?

Arnolfini: Wed 11 October, 18:30, £7/£5

Urban landscapes affect our health and wellbeing, often not for the better. Various speakers including Architecture 00, Landscape Institute and SHINE discuss how we can create better, healthier urban spaces. Chaired by Lawrence Carmichael (WHO, UWE).

In partnership with SHINE and Landscape Institute. Part of Healthy City Week (7-14 Oct).

WEST COUNTRY MODERN

Arnolfini: Wed 1 November, 18:30, £7/£5

Love it or hate it, modernism in architecture resonates through theory and practice. Hear how it is being reinterpreted at a range of scales, from civic buildings to house extensions, with speakers Juliet Bidgood (Ciam6: Cities Re-imagined), Sandra Coppin (Coppin Dockray) and Geoff Rich (Feilden Clegg Bradley Studios).

Design Thinking Series in partnership with UWE.

THE RIGHT TO GREAT DESIGN

Wed 8 November, 18:00, Free

Design is everywhere and has a profound effect on our quality of life. So why aren't the places we live, work and play in better for everyone? Join this round table conversation, where we challenge the impact and responsibilities of design in making better places for us all.

In partnership with The Glass-House Community Led Design.

CAMPUS OF IDEAS WITH YASMIN AL ANI-SPENCE, WILKINSON EYRE

Arnolfini: Wed 29 November, 18:30, £7/£5

Yasmin Al Ani-Spence shares the inspiration and innovation behind the Dyson Campus and other award-winning projects.

In partnership with the Bristol & Bath branch of the RIBA. Supported by Ibstock Brick.

MATERIALITY WITH ECKERSLEY O'CALLAGHAN

Arnolfini: Wed 6 December, 18:30, £7/£5

Talk examining the innovative and wide-ranging work of award-winning engineers including the extraordinary 'Skypool' and landmark Apple stores across the world.

BRISTOL CHILD FRIENDLY CITY

Bristol Child Friendly City (BCFC) was established in 2015 by the Architecture Centre, Playing Out and Room 13 Hareclive. This autumn they continue to champion the voice of children in the physical and democratic life of the city.

HOW DO WE CREATE CHILD-FRIENDLY CITIES?

Watershed: Fri 20 October, 14:30, Free

What is a child-friendly city? Hear from leading designers and thinkers who put children at the heart of city placemaking and join BCFC partners for discussion and debate.

Part of the Festival of the Future City.

CHILDREN'S PARTICIPATION IN CITY SPACES

City Hall: Thurs 9 November, 14:00, Free

What prevents children playing in city spaces and how do we best capture their views? Following BCFC's collaboration with local primary schools, hear the issues that young people say affect their play.

Part of the Thinking Futures Festival.

BRISTOL FAMILY ARTS FESTIVAL

A citywide celebration of creativity, Bristol Family Arts Festival returns with 50+ events throughout October. Get hands on and creative with the Architecture Centre at free drop-in workshops, every Saturday of the month, across the city.

FUN PALACE

Hillfields Library: Saturday 7 October, 13:00-16:00, Free

On your marks, get set, build! Join us and the Children's Scrapstore for a creative pop-up Fun Palace event. Inspired by sporting structures and engineering, come make models, large and small, to celebrate Bristol's year as European Capital of Sport 2017.

CREATIVE IDENTITY AT JUNCTION 3 LIBRARY

Junction 3 Library: Saturday 14 October, 13:00-16:00, Free

Explore who you are through model-making, drawing and animation. Come create, collage, colour and build at this drop-in session with us, Children's Scrapstore and Watershed.

HEART YOUR STREET

Architecture Centre: Saturday 21 October, 13:00-16:00, Free

Bring your street alive through this creative workshop for all ages. Artist Scott Farlow invites you to share your stories, memories and experiences of life where you live and add them to the meeting points exhibition.
